DEMAND OF THE POWERS

The Crisis in the East Considered Grave.

EUROPEANS SEEKING SAFETY

A Stronger Note to be Addressed to the Porte, Backed by a Naval Demonstration.

LONDON, June 5.—There was much excitement in London about the foreign office yesterday on the receipt of official dispatches confirming the dispatches from Constantinople announcing that the Turkish government had refused to agree to reforms in Armenia which were demanded by the representatives of Great Britain, France and Russia. All the foreign office officials, including the secretary of state for foreign affairs, the Earl of Kimberly, were at their posts last night and have assembled again at the foreign office today. There is a strong belief in well informed circles here that the reply of the porte was purposely drafted in unfavorable terms in order to gain time. The Sultan is invisible during the Sairam, one of the two great Mohammedan festivals of the year, which is now being observed. Consequently the powers, it is asserted here, will now address a stronger note to the porte and in addition will back this up by a naval demonstration.

The crisis in the east is already regarded on all sides as being grave, and this feeling is intensified by the news from Constantinople today telling of the panic at Jeddah, threatened attack of the Bedouins and the flight of Europeans who are seeking safety on board the vessels in the harbor. It is freely predicted here that an outbreak is inevitable. There is no question of the powers abating their demands in any form, although there is a growing belief that Russia is backing Turkey in the latter's refusal to agree to the reforms demanded by the powers for Armenia. The full text of the demands of the powers will be published here today. It makes over 3000 words, and the main points of it have already been published.

The note of the powers in this connection makes twelve distinct suggestions or demands in regard to Armenian reforms as follows:

1. The eventful reduction of the number of vilayets.
2. Guarantees for the selection of valis, or governors.
3. Amnesty for Armenian political prisoners.
4. Return of Armenian exiles to their homes.
4. Final settlement for common law crimes.
6. The inspection of prisoners.
7. The appointment of a high commissioner to supervise the reforms.
8. The creation of a permanent committee of control at Constantinople.
9. Indemnity to the Sassoun and other victims of the recent massacres.
10. Regulation of religious conversions.
11. Maintenance of the Armenians' rights and privileges.
11. Position of the Armenians in other vilayets of Asiatic Turkey to be regulated on the same basis.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 5.—Animosity has been aroused by the quarantine measures which the Turkish government has been compelled to take at Mecca, at the instance of the powers, in order to prevent the introduction of cholera by the return of infected pilgrims from Mecca. In fact it is believed that the sanitary measures were the local cause of the attack upon the consuls. The measures were quite recently taken under severe pressure of the powers and at the instance of the Turkish International councils of health for the purpose of cleaning the holy places frequented annually by so many thousands of pilgrims. These sanitary improvements began in April last at Jeddah and at other towns of the pilgrimage district of Arabia, and they include the building of hospitals, the frequent disinfection of the places resorted to by pilgrims, the selection by the health officers of the camping places, furnishing wholesome supplies of water and provisions and general sanitary supervision over the pilgrims.

To this new order of things the latter have strongly objected, looking upon it as an unwarranted interference on the part of Europeans in their religious customs, and it is feared that the so-called men are exciting the pilgrims against the Europeans, believing that their old time privileges and profits will be swept away if the march of sanitation is not stopped.

The envoys of Great Britain, Russia and France in this city are awaiting instructions from their governments in regard to the situation of affairs at Jeddah as well as regarding the refusal of the Turkish government, as exclusively cabled to the Associated Press yesterday, to agree to the reforms in Armenia which have been proposed by the powers. In this connection the situation of affairs is unchanged. The porte's reply, however, is regarded as a momentary success for the military party. On the other hand the policy of Turkey in this matter is criticised by the Ottoman statesmen who regard the porte's action as disastrous to Turkey.

Beekeepers Meet at Hanford.

HANFORD, June 5.—The Central California Beekeepers Association met here today. There were fifty-five representatives of the association in attendance, and the topic for discussion was, "How to realize the best profit for the industry." The beekeepers are facing much the same difficulty as the raisin growers—that is, the profits are absorbed by the shipper and the broker. It is resolved to place the product of the members of the association in the hands of C. X. Wendling of this city, secretary of the association, as agent for the producers.

Mrs. Hedberg Married Again.

CHICAGO, June 5.—Raymond Sibley Stephens and Mrs. Jennie A. Hedberg were married today at Grace Episcopal church. The groom is about 25 years old, and has a reputation as a singer. The bride was the widow of the late Captain Hedberg, who was killed by Lieutenant Maney at Fort Sheridan a couple of years ago as the outgrowth of a quarrel resulting from the alleged attentions of the lieutenant to Mrs. Hedberg.

Prisoners Reprieved.

SACRAMENTO, June 5.—Governor Budd today granted a reprieve to Rico Morasco and Fremont Smith, both of whom were to be hanged next Friday. Morasco's reprieve is until March 14, 1897, and that of Smith until August 9, 1895. It is also stated that he is making some form of investigation into the case of Patrick Collins, another of the condemned men.

REMOVED FROM OFFICE.

C. B. Morton Wrote Letters Reflecting Upon the President.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The President today removed from office C. B. Morton, Democrat, of Maine, auditor in the treasury, for the navy department. The difficulty which culminated today began several months ago when information, it is said, reached the department that Mr. Morton had, both during his former and his present term of office, written letters of a highly improper character to friends in his native state reflecting upon the President and Secretary Carlisle. The officials, it is said, took the trouble to investigate the information and his summary removal today is the result.

Paulsell's Defense.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—William E. Paulsell of Stockton, on trial for the robbery of a faro bank here in February, 1894, began his defense in the superior court today. He says he was himself held up by the faro robbers, made to wear certain articles of clothing belonging to the robbers and loaded down with incriminating evidence, the purport of which he did not understand until arrested. He declares there was no reason for the robbery, as his share in the estate of his father, J. J. Paulsell, the well known Democratic politician, amounts to $35,000.

Indian Agent Promoted.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—J. C. Keenan of Indianapolis, who has been employed at the Kaw Indian sub-agency in Oklahoma, has been appointed agent at Neah bay, Washington. He has been in the service five years and was promoted without any request from himself, solely as a recognition of his efficiency and reliability.

CAPTAIN CLAVIGO SHOT

THE SOLDIERS HAD TO FIRE AT HIM THREE TIMES.

The Scene Caused Great Excitement Among the Horrified Spectators.

MADRID, June 5.—Captain Clavigo, who shot and seriously wounded the captain-general, Prima Ribera, after the latter refused him the hand of his daughter on Monday, was shot today, having been sentenced to death by court martial. He displayed marvelous fortitude and composure.

A special dispatch from Madrid said that the soldiers who executed Captain Clavigo had to fire at him three times. Clavigo first fell with three bullets in his head, and he still moved after a soldier had fired another shot into his heart from under the chin. He did not die until another soldier fired a bullet through his heart. The scene caused great excitement among the horrified spectators.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Captain Clavigo walked to the prison van smoking a cigarette and bowed to the crowd assembled within the prison gate. They acknowledged his courtesy by cheering loudly for the Captain. The prison van, surrounded by gendarmes, proceed to the Square of San Isnadoro, on the bank of the Manzanres river. There Clavigo alighted and walked to the center of the square, which was lined with troops on three sides. The Captain, when he reached the required position, bandaged his own eyes and then again bowed to the people. The officer in command of the firing squad then gave the order to fire, and Clavigo fell, killed instantly, but according to custom, two shots, as a coup de grace, were fired at his prostrate body, although the officer was already dead. The troops then filed past the body, and the remains were removed.

Congregational Missionary Society.

SARATOGA, June 5.—The Congregational Home Missionary Society resumed its sixty-ninth anniversary today. Under the heading of auxiliaries, addresses were made by Rev. C. H. Merrill of Vermont, and Rev. Dr. James Tompkins of Chicago. Addresses were also made by the Rev. H. W. Carter of Wisconsin and L. Lovel of St. Louis. Mrs. Harriet S. C. Cadwell of New York presided at the thirteenth annual meeting of the Woman's department. During this year the department contributed $673,300 to mission work. She outlined the plan of work for the year. Miss Anna Hadoush of Bradford, Pa., spoke of her mission work among the Hungarians during the past five years. An address was made by Mrs. Joseph Cook of Boston.

The board accepted the offer and ordered the present policies cancelled. This is the inauguration of the insurance war in this county. POLICE SUSPICIONS.

Convinced That Buck Killed Miss Harrington.

THE DEAD SENATOR'S ACTIONS

The Alibi as Stated by his Family Not Borne out by Police Investigation.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—The Evening Post states that the entire detective force of this city is convinced that ex-Senator L. W. Buck struck the blows which killed Miss Nellie Harrington in her flat last Saturday. Buck died yesterday from the effect of injuries sustained by being thrown from a cart while being driven by a policeman to the office of the chief of police. The local chief of detectives said today:

"I don't want to talk about this murder, because I hate to fight dead men."

The conclusions of the police are said to be based on the contents of 150 private letters found in Miss Harrington's room, which are said to indicate that the murdered woman and Buck had even greater intimacy than appeared on the surface. On the back of Buck's photograph Miss Harrington had left a written request that it be destroyed at her death. The alibi of Buck, as stated by his family, is not borne out by police investigation. Detectives state that instead of remaining in his Oakland residence from the time of the arrival of the Marysville train at 11.30 until 1.30, as stated by his son, Senator Buck actually left home a few minutes after noon. An Oakland resident named Chamberlain came across on the ferry with Buck, and Chamberlain's bookkeeper states that his employer arrived at his office before 1 o'clock. This the police say would give Buck time to proceed to the Ellis street residence of Miss Harrington, commit the crime and get away before 1.30, the hour the alarm of fire was turned in from the flat.

In trying to fasten the crime on Buck the detectives are building up cumulative evidence. They say the dead senator's actions after the tragedy were suspicious. When he returned to Oakland on the ferry many of his acquaintances discussed the murder, but Buck kept silent, and although he had the afternoon papers with accounts of the crime, he said nothing to his family of the murder, although the members knew Miss Harrington well. It has been proved that Buck was in the habit of making midday calls on Miss Harrington, and the murderer must have been on intimate terms to secure admission to her room and to make his exit unnoticed. Buck's remark to the policeman who went to his house on Saturday: "I know what the police want me for," is also considered by the detectives to corroborate their theory. The most unfortunate feature of the police theory is that the accused man is dead and no testimony can be offered in reply to police suspicions.

THE BIG FIGHT.

BRADY IS SATISFIED WITH THE ARRANGEMENTS.

Fitzsimmons Says Mr. Corbett Has a Big Contract on His Hands When They Meet.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The proposed Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight remains the topic of discussion among the sporting men here. Manager Brady said tonight he was perfectly satisfied with the arrangements made by the Dallas people and that his man would be in the ring fit and ready on the day to be hired later in October by the Dallas club. An Associated Press reporter called on Fitzsimmons at his residence tonight. In response to a number of questions he said:

"I feel perfectly satisfied the contest will take place at Dallas, as the business men, through their representative, seem to be on the level.

"There have been some remarks questioning my sincerity in the affair, and some persons have been unkind enough to say I will weaken. I can assure you, and the public as well, that I am just as ready to meet Corbett as I would be to meet an inferior in the ring. Corbett, I believe, has said I was not in his class; but, if Charlie Mitchell was, then I certainly must be, and I cannot see where I could possibly be left out. Depend upon my word Mr. Corbett has a big contract on his hands, and when he meets me he will tackle a better man than he has ever met before.

"Give me a fair, trustworthy referee, and I have no doubt that I shall prove myself the better man. It is just possible I may weigh twenty pounds lighter than Corbett, but I can easily make up for that, and our relative weights may be 160 and 181 pounds."

Phil J. Dwyer, stakeholder for the coming fight, said tonight: "I am perfectly satisfied that Fitzsimmons and Corbett will meet in the latter part of October, near Dallas. I now have in my possession $25,000, $10,000 each for the principals' side bet, and the $5000 guarantee from the Dallas people."

THE CRIME OF A CENTURY.

Pastor Gibson Will Lecture on the Murders in His Church.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—Rev. J. George Gibson, pastor of Emmanuel church, announces that he is going to deliver lectures on the murders committed in the church. The title of his lectures will be "The Crime of a Century," and his object is to raise funds for the payment of the church debt. Gibson is oncemore using the study in Emmanuel church where Minnie Williams was murdered.

Condition of the Wool Trade.

BOSTON, June 5.—The American Wool and Cotton Reporter will say tomorrow, of the wool trade: Although the market has continued to wear that quiet exterior as has characterized it all during last month, the fact remains that the sales this week in their total equal the average weekly aggregate under which we used to call the nominal trade conditions. The sales this week amount to 1,477500 pounds domestic and 1,635,500 pounds foreign, making a total of 3,115,000 pounds against a total of 2,400,500 for the previous week and a total of 2,166,000 for the corresponding week last year. The sales since January 1, 1895, amount to 69,84,450 against 64,413,800 a year ago.

THE UNION STOCK YARDS.

A Foreclosure Suit Filed Against the Extensive Plant.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—The California Safe Deposit and Trust Company today filed suit for foreclosure of a mortgage of $250,000 against the Union Stock Yards Company, whose extensive plant is at Roden, Contra Costa county. F. W. Sumner was placed in charge as receiver. The trust company is acting as trustee for the bond holders and alleged failure to pay interest on the bonds as cause for foreclosure. The stock yards company was organized by Silberborn and Harris, Omaha packers, and nearly $1,000,000 was invested in the plant. The concern has never paid, owing to the opposition of the San Francisco butchers and the competition of a rival packing establishment near San Francisco which was backed by the Armours of Chicago.

Too Old to be of More Use.

SACRAMENTO, June 5.—An old musician named Emile Berlinger left his home yesterday and took a room in a hotel, where he went to bed and swallowed a dose of morphine. He was found dead today. He left a letter stating that he was too old to be of any more use in the world. Chagrin over his defeat for the secretaryship of the Musicians' Union is believed to have been the direct cause of the act.

Grain Fire at Tracy.

TRACY, June 5.—A grain fire this afternoon five miles southeast of Tracy burned 1500 sacks in stack belonging to Nickeson, sixty acres and sixty sacks owned by Ed Meyers and thirty acres belonging to Gillen, all barley. The two latter were insured. The grain caught fire from a threshing engine.

THE VALLEY RAILROAD

WHAT C. F. CROCKER OF THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC SAYS.

He is Glad to See It Going Ahead and Hopes It Will be Successful.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—C. F. Crocker, vice president of the Southern Pacific Company, who has just returned from a trip around the world, said today:

"I think this state is about to enter on a very prosperous era. The projected San Joaquin Valley Railroad is going to do a great deal towards that end. When I went away the project of the road had been agitated, but it had not been put into practical shape. Now there is no doubt but that it will be built. As a business enterprise it is sure to do a great deal of good to California. I, for one, am glad to see it going ahead. I hope it will be successful.

"Now, I mean just what I say. The San Joaquin Valley Railroad will have a wonderful influence on the development of the state, and that will benefit me personally. My efforts in business are chiefly directed toward the prosperity of California. I have extensively large interests in Merced and Tulare counties. This new road will help them. Under such circumstances why shouldn't I be glad to see it constructed?

"Now, so far as that enterprise is carried on as a business proposition and not with the idea of doing any other interest an injury, it is sure to succeed and certain to benefit California and San Francisco. If its purpose is to maliciously do harm to any other enterprise, then I think it will not succeed.

"Of course, nobody can say definitely whether the road will itself be a financial success. I think, however, that, if properly managed, it will make money. I am sure that its construction will wonderfully help every interest in the San Joaquin valley."

A Pinto From Mexico.

STOCKTON, June 5.—A Mexican Indian, who lives a short distance east of town, was thought to be a leper, because he had large white spots on his hands. An investigation of the case brought out the fact that he is one of the pintos of Mexico, spotted people who inhabit the valley of Mescala, state of Guerrero, Mexico. He is a harmless fellow, who lives by making toys.

Wants a Divorce.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—Carrie Clark Warde has filed an application for divorce from James M. Warde on the ground of cruelty. Both are well known on the stage throughout the coast.

ANNUAL INSPECTION.

Fresno's Military Companies Pass Creditable Muster.

Companies G and F of the N. G. C. passed muster and inspection last night by Colonel Hay. Lieutenant Kenna, ex-paymaster of the Third regiment, San Francisco, was present as a visitor. The inspection should have been held in March, but was postponed on account of the reorganization of the guards.

Company G had fifty-three men on the roll call, and only six were absent. One of the men, C. S. Shafer, came from Dinuba to be present. Several guns were condemned, being out of order. The annual target practice will be held this month. All retired brigade officers will take part. The election of first lieutenant to take the place of Peeler will be held this month. A second lieutenant will also be elected. There are three men who are entitled to medals for ten years of service. They are Major Chisholm, Major Winchell and Lieutenant Morgan.

OPPOSE FREE COINAGE

Kentucky Republicans in Convention.

BELIEVE IN A SOUND CURRENCY

That Every Dollar Should be of Equal Value With Every Other Dollar.

LOUISVILLE, June 5.—The Republican state convention convened at 2 p.m. today at the Auditorium, which seats 5000, and was filled to its full capacity. Hon. J. W. Yerkes, one of the candidates for senator, who was chairman of the state committee, made a strong speech on the existing conditions in Kentucky, and introduced as temporary chairman Judge George Denny, who is contesting with Colonel W. C. Owens, the seat of Colonel Breckinridge in congress. After Judge Denny's speech the usual committees were appointed, the one on resolutions including all the Republican congressmen-elect from Kentucky. Congressman Walter Evans offered a strong resolution for a gold standard. It was referred to the committee on resolutions. An invitation to appoint the delegates to the free coinage convention at Memphis was tabled. Congressman Evans was made permanent chairman and Samuel J. Roberts secretary. It was ascertained that the committee on resolutions was having difficulty on the free silver plank. The convention remained in session up to 5.30, filling in with speeches, when it took a recess until 7.30, awaiting the report on resolutions.

On reassembling the committee on resolutions was unable to report, and favorites were again called out for speeches. Speeches were heard until 9 p.m., when the platform was received and unanimously adopted.

State Chairman Yerkes presented the name of Colonel W. O. Bradley for the nomination for governor. The nomination was made by acclamation, with continued demonstration until Colonel Bradley was escorted to the platform.

After thanking the convention and accepting the nomination for governor, Colonel Bradley reviewed recent political changes in Kentucky, and on the financial plank said:

"The platform of today is but a repetition of the platforms of the past. It demands protection for every American interest—protection for the producer, protection for the manufacturer, protention for the laborer and protection for the currency. It denounces the heresy of free, unlimited and independent coinage of silver, and it will protect the people from the dishonor of repudiation. It has been said before this, and it is repeated now, that every dollar should be of equal value with every other dollar, and that every promise to pay a dollar shall be as sacred as a soldier's grave and worth 100 cents wherever the flag floats. It favors the use of gold and silver of equal purchasing and equal debt-paying power, and will preserve for every son of toil the same dollar that is held by the richest millionaire in the land. We heartily sympathize with the intelligent business men of the Democratic party who agree with us on this question, and ask them to stand by and help us in an honest effort to preserve the nation's credit."

The platform adopted charges that the recent reduction in wages, decline in exportations, general depression of business, shrinkage in values and labor agitation have all been due to the apprehension of business interests, to recent tariff changes and to want of confidence in the Democratic management.

Continuing the platform says: "We are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing it would involve the country in financial ruin. We believe in sound currency and in the use of both gold and silver for coinage, provided always that a dollar in one is made precisely as valuable as a dollar in the other.

"We favor an American policy which will protect Americans and American interests in all parts of the world at all hazards and will sympathize with strongly republican governments rather than ignorant monarchies."

The names of eight candidates for the lieutenant governorship were presented and after balloting until midnight without effect the convention adjourned.

STILL IN ABEYANCE.

Schools, Schoolhouses and Schoolhouse Sites.

Considerable wrangling over the high school site muddle is still in prospect. On Saturday evening the board will meet and its members think that by that time District Attorney Snow will have an opinion ready on the legality of the new board's action in rescinding a resolution passed by the old board, etc., etc. REPUBLICAN reporter last evening that he could not have the opinion ready by Saturday night.

The board has decided to reject all bids for the moving of the white school building. The reason given is that none of the bids received were for the entire work, but only for parts. The trustees say they are desirous of letting the whole contract to one party. Architect H. W. Downing has prepared plans and specifications for the entire work and as soon as that opinion from the District Attorney is secured, the boar i will readvertise for bids. That is, if he says that the action of the new board is legal. If he says it is illegal the new high school building will very likely go on the Terry block and the white school house will not be moved.

At a meeting of the board on Tuesday evening it was decided not to charge a 10-cent admission fee to the high school commencement exercises. The graduating class has "indignated" considerably at being put up for a dime show, and wanted to have the admission either free or 50 cents. Trustee Church voted against rescending the board's former action.

The board held an executive session in which the choice of teachers for next term was discussed.

R. W. Pamberton of Hanford is registered at the Grand Central.

GETTING IN SHAPE.

The committee on right of way in Fresno county for the Valley road is quietly but diligently prosecuting the work assigned to it, and will be ready to report definite progress in the near future. The work up to date has necessarily been preliminary in its nature, and could not be done hastily. In the matter of subscriptions, for instance, considerable care has been taken to prepare an agreement for signatures which would guard the mutual interests of the signers and the owners of the road, and this agreement has been submitted to the directors of the road in order that an entirely satisfactory understanding may be arrived at before pledges are made. This takes time, but it is calculated to prevent misunderstandings which might result in delay when delay would be disastrous. The committee is in communication with the directors of the road in regard to this and other matters, and is getting them upon a secure basis for the actual work to be accomplished.

It is also evident that considerable time is going to be required to get propositions from real estate owners for terminal facilities in the shape desired by the committee for final action, and the committee is determined to give all feasible propositions full consideration before deciding upon a location. That considerable time will elapse before the permanent survey is made in this locality is evident, but the committee desires all matters to be in good condition for that work in Fresno county, and to that end asks the co-operation and assistance of every citizen who has the welfare of the county at heart in the matter of bringing to a successful issue the requests made by the directors of the competing road.

If the committee is moving more deliberately and carefully than would appear to some people to be necessary, the fact should be borne in mind that this is not a small, unimportant nor uncertain proposition, but is an enterprise certain of realization and of vital importance, and that every step must be taken with due regard to the interests of the county, the city and of the enterprise which promises so much for the future of this great valley.

DAY before yesterday Asa Fisk, San Francisco's notorious usurer, recovered judgment for $1912 on a promissory note. The note was given on March 21, 1890, and was for $310. In other words, the judgment was for $310, principal, and $1602, interest. The interest, it will be observed, amounts to just about 100 per cent per annum. It was at the rate of 3 per cent a month, compounded monthly. Compared with Asa Fisk and his kind the ordinary petty larcenist is a gentleman. But the law jails the larcenist, and it gives Fisk a judgment. Compared with such a bloodless and soulless creature the man who stands before "His Honor" with "drunk" written on the docket opposite his name is one of nature's noblemen, but the latter is given a fine, and the former is given his pound of flesh. The arguments against a usury law we know—The law is evaded. Yes; so is a larceny law. Men must have money at any price. Yes; so must they have bread; therefore let men who own it sell it at $5 a loaf—these arguments we know, but against and outweighing them all is the fact that society owes to the individual protection against those who prey on his necessities. California needs a usury law, and in these hard times its necessity is most felt. And if such a law—think of Asa Fisk—would occasionally result in the imprisonment of a usurer it would be so much the better.

IN ordering a complete revision of the indigent list and requiring all applicants to appear in person and substantiate their claims for public assistance, the Board of Supervisors will undoubtedly succeed in effecting a material saving of public funds without doing injustice to any unfortunate who is worthy of aid. There is a tendency to abuse charity dispensed in this form, and the decision of the supervisors that no one who is able to work shall receive assistance is entirely proper, especially at a time when labor is in demand. The board will receive the hearty commendation of the taxpayers in their efforts to reduce expenses to a basis in keeping with the times.

A LIFE convict in the Kansas penitentiary has petitioned the Governor of that state to sign his death warrant, thus permitting him to be executed. People who object to the imposition of the death penalty should give the case their consideration. Perhaps the quality of their mercy is strained. The Kansan is hardly the only person who would prefer execution to imprisonment for life, even with the possibility of executive clemency to mitigate the severity of the latter sentence.

BEFORE many weeks there will be an abundance of fresh fruits in the markets.—Expositor News Item.

The appearance of the fruit stalls at the present time does not give the impression of a famine of fresh fruits. Apricots, cherries, currants, blackberries, strawberries and raspberries there are in great abundance, nearly all of which are produced in Fresno county, currants and some varieties of cherries being the exceptions.

THE Wholesale Grocers' Association has decided to put on a line of steamers to Colon to compete for the California trade with New York. The association has something to say about the exorbitant freight charges of the Southern Pacific Company forcing it to this line of action, but this must be a mistake.

TWO boys, one 17 years and the other 14 years old, burglarized a shoe store in San Francisco night before last. Our boys get along quite naughtily sometimes.

CARLISLE'S PROPOSITIONS.

In his recent speech at Bowling Green, Kentucky, Senator Carlisle presented five propositions for popular consideration. Here they are, considered seriatim:

First—That there is not a free coinage country in the world today that is not on a silver basis.

To this the natural response seems to be that this was a "free coinage country" twenty-two years ago, and it was not on a silver basis, or if it was, the people who compare those times with these will be apt to unite in wishing for more "silver basis."

Second—That there is not a gold standard country in the world today that does not use silver as money along with gold.

Wherein is this an argument against the adoption of free silver coinage? As silver will circulate, why should it not do so as redemption money?

Third—That there is not a silver standard country in the world today that uses any gold as money along with silver.

Nobody desires that this be an exclusively silver-standard nation; the sole demand is that we have the bimetallic standard. Before the "crime of 1873" against which the secretary has heretofore eloquently animadverted, and while we had the double standard, gold was used "as money along with silver."

Fourth—There is not a silver standard country in the world today that has more than one-third as much money in circulation per capita as the United States.

When the United States had the silver standard our per capita circulation was greater than it is under the single gold standard. Let experience be a lamp to our feet.

Fifth—That there is not a silver standard country in the world today where the laboring man receives fair pay for his day's work.

Statistics are not needed to prove that a laboring man received better pay in this country in the early 70's than he now does, for the demonstration of the fact is all about us.

That which John G. Carlisle denounced as a crime in 1878 he is attempting to perpetuate in 1895.

ALL disfranchised classes, as the Russian serf, Chinese Coolies and American woman are at the mercy of the franchised classes of their respective countries, and are on the same plane.—Susan B. Anthony.

As the American woman has practically all the rights of the American man excepting the franchise, and some exclusive privileges, Miss Anthony will doubtless be willing to admit that the American male is more generous in the exercise of his power than those of Russia and China, notwithstanding she has placed the American woman on the same plane with the Russian serf and Chinese Coolie.

JUDGING from the amount of difficulty that the Cleveland Democrats of Illinois and Ohio are having in holding the party in line for the single gold standard, it appears that the Wall-Street, Lombard-street, Cleveland-and-his-cabinet, "sound currency" doctrine is not as popular in the middle east as has sometimes been alleged. It is to be feared that Mr. Cleveland has got congress off his hands, only to get a country at large on them.

A DYSPEPTIC patient in a Cleveland hospital shot a fellow patient because the latter had tormented him. It is only occasionally that dyspepsia results as seriously as this; ordinarily it merely causes its victim to want to shoot somebody.

IT is a rather happy thought that there will be no "octopus" in the valley after the competing road is built. There will then be two competing roads instead of one monopoly.

RANDOM REMARKS.

Mrs. James J. Corbett is suing for a divorce. If this starts the champion to talking again the country may as well resign itself to its fate.

That Oakland man who prayed that the Almighty would heap curses on his wife should be careful of the gun that he fools with—it might explode at the wrong end.

The London Daily News says:

"We should be delighted to receive a visit from the President of the United States."

It looks reasonable, and at the same time it may be said that if the News can prevail on our honored executive to go to England it may keep him just as long as it pleases.

The —s have been living with ——, who married —— —— for two months.—From the Expositor.

That's it; that's it exactly; that's what we have said all along. The bane of this country is the increasing custom of getting married "for two months" or even less time than that. No couple should marry each other for less than six months, and there ought to be a local ordinance against it. The attention of the trustees is called to the subject, and although the Expositor expresses its emotions in this case, we feel sure that it will agree with us in reprehending these ephemeral marriages. "Nothing Less Than Six Months" should be the motto of all good citizens.

"OF SUCH IS THE KINGDOM."

"Of such is the kingdom"—the world has grown weary
Of toiling and delving and building in vain,
And its days and its nights are so dreary, so dreary;
And the failure of hope is the price of our pain.
But the children are here, with the light on their faces;
With the morn-light, the joy-light, the dawn-light of bliss,
And our spirits grow bright in the light of their graces,
And the phantom of trouble one moment we miss.

"Of such is the kingdom"—no kingdom were brighter
Than that which is born in the light of their eyes.
They make this old planet grow gladder and lighter,
Their laughter's a melody cynics might prize;
And I think that the angels stoop down from their skies
At sound of that music, as sweet as it's wild,
As it's borne to their hearts through the infinite spaces,
The clear-ringing, cheer-bringing laugh of a child.

Rev. William Rader, a Congregational clergyman, was going into the Oakland city council chamber to argue in favor of a Sunday-closing ordinance when an interested party opposed his entrance and finally struck him. Thereupon did Rev. Rader apply muscular force to the fellow and injure him. And we want to say that that is the kind of a "church militant" in which we believe. The saloon is not so unmixed and undebatable a blessing that it is superior to the criticism of any American citizen who chooses to lift his voice against it, and when any of its votaries lays violent hands on an opponent the ground should be mopped in a christian way with him. To pugilistic intolerance Americans should always have an answer, and it should be a radical one. The saloon is with us, but not to insult, browbeat or assault those who object to it, and its beneficiaries will look wisely to the feathering of their financial nest if they remember the fact.

A TRUE FOXTALE.

They were sitting in the gloaming.
Some people prefer an arm chair, but they liked the gloaming better; so they sat in it.
All about them was the gray prairie, and in the distant skies a myriad of stars were twinkling merrily.
Stars frequently do. Also, the skies are usually distant—cold and distant. All things indicate that this is a true tale.
"You must have noticed, Ethel, the deep regard that I have long disp—Ouch!"
The foxtail hung right to him and chuckled bitterly as he suddenly arose.
"You must have noticed, Ethel, that—There! I've got it—I was about to remark that you must have noticed that I have long displayed a deep reg—"
"Excuse me one moment, Henry."
A young lady might have been observed in the dim background, earnestly wrestling with the continuation of her foot, but the foxtail knew a good thing when it had it, and hung right on. She conquered, and returned.
"You were about to say, Henry?"
"Oh, nothing in particular."
"But I am sure that you were about to say something."
"I was going to say that—that—oh, Ethel, I was going to say that I lo—Thunder!"
The foxtail laughed a low, sardonic laugh.
"You were about to say?"
"I was going to say that it's time to go home."
"Oh, Henry!"
"It is time to go home. This conversation may be continued at some future time, but not now—not now."
So they went home, and a great bitterness was in their hearts, and for twenty-four hours they pulled foxtails from places of which you never dreamed, children, of which you never dreamed. And now they are as strangers.
And if you don't believe that this is a true foxtale ask some of the Fresno girls.

M. Thompson, 1156 J street, who is up to date with Bicycles, Fishing Tackle and Sporting Goods——

Kidney.

E. W. JAY COMPANY—Gentlemen: I have suffered from kidney trouble for two or three years. I would have to get up in the night to void my urine from ten to fifteen times. My sleep was disturbed, and I became very thin and nervous. No appetite, bowels constipated. I have taken two bottles and gained fifteen pounds. Sleep well. Have to get up about three times during night, and am very much better in every respect. Will continue to take your Vegetable Sarsaparilla, for believe it will entirely cure me.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rivers Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery, it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Webster Bros. drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

THE SUNSET DISTRICT

An Irrigation Fight Before the Supervisors.

INSIDE FACTS OF THE CASE

The New Fountain Will Not Displace the Lily Plot—Angry Indigents.

The most important matter discussed at the meeting of the supervisors yesterday was the contest made over the appointment of Cole Campbell as a director of the Sunset Irrigation district. This appointment was made by the board last month, and the opponents of Mr. Campbell claim that he is not eligible, inasmuch as he resides in this county and votes here, while he was appointed for the fifth district, which requires residence in Kings county. On the other hand the friends of Mr. Campbell want him kept just where he is because he is avowedly hostile to the men who have been running the irrigation district for some time past, and whose course is now under investigation in actions pending in the superior court.

The removal of Mr. Campbell is intended, admittedly, to make way for the appointment of R. W. Pemberton. The latter is understood to be favorable to the cause of T. L. Reed of Reedly, and P. Y. Baker of Traver, who hold the big contract of $1,500,000 for carrying out the irrigation work.

This work is at present held back by the attitude of two of the directors, of whom Mr. Campbell is one. There are five directors on the board, and at a meeting held two days ago, when four directors were present they stood two and two.

The matter came before the board yesterday afternoon, pursuant to date arranged with the petitioners in the case of L. M. Fredericks et al., O. A. Wood et al., and M. K. Harris et al., for the appointment of R. W. Pemberton as director of the Sunset Irrigation district in division No. 5. Mark Walser appeared for Pemberton and Frank H. Short for Campbell, the director whose eligibility is disputed. Deputy District Attorney Freman was present from the district attorney's office.

Mr. Short stated the case for Campbell, who was appointed by the board at the previous monthly meeting in place of director Fish, disqualified. Mr. Short questioned the jurisdiction of the board in the present matter. What jurisdiction the board has resides in a political statute providing that if a vacancy occurs on the board of directors of the Sunset Irrigation district it shall be filled by the Board of Supervisors, but this does not make the office an appointive one. It is an elective office. For this board to undertake to pass on a man's eligibility is to settle a matter of law, which the supervisors are not in a position to do.

Mr. Short continued that he was satisfied Campbell is eligible for the office, more so than the person who seeks it, and he cautioned the supervisors against making an appointment where it is claimed that the applicant is friendly to the beneficiaries of a heavy contract. Campbell was simply appointed by this board to fill an unexpired term, but he is not an appointive officer properly so called. The right to subpœna witnesses is undoubtedly possessed by the supervisors, but this does not confer the right to try questions of law.

Chairman Wickersham asked Mr. Short if he denied the right of the board to review its own acts.

Mr. Short replied that this was not the question. If Mr. Pemberton or others desired to test the eligibility of Mr. Campbell, the superior court was the proper place for the decision of the question.

Attorney Walser said the whole question was simply whether this board has a right to review its own act. The case came clearly under section 4066 of the political code, which he read. He spoke briefly in support of the contention that Mr. Campbell is disqualified, and that the supervisors can take testimony and make any change desired.

Deputy District Attorney Freman asked for time to look up the authorities on the matter, and on motion of Latcher this was granted. The case will probably come up this afternoon.

Sergeant D. E. Nichols appeared before the board for instructions as to placing the new fountain in the courthouse park.

Deputy Clerk Johnson read a petition signed by a number of leading citizens, asking that the fountain be located on the city plot at the western entrance of the park. This plot has a nice circle of green grass around it and Sergeant Nichols himself wanted to place it there, as he thought it desirable to make the foundation look as nice as possible.

It became evident, however, that some members of the board had already made up their minds that there was plenty of room for the fountain nearer to the western entrance, between the lamp and the city plot. Letcher made a motion that it be so located.

Sayre thought the wishes of the citizens should be consulted, and asked for a postponement till the citizens could have an opportunity of presenting their case. Letcher declined to withdraw his motion, however, and on a vote being taken Sayre voted with the majority, Rose alone voting for the city plot site. A principal objection made against the latter is that a beautiful object on which time and money have been spent would be ruined.

On motion of Garret, Sergeant Nichols was granted authority to set to work at once preparing the site selected for the reception of the fountain. The latter is now on the way here.

The auditor was directed to draw a warrant in favor of the Whittier reform school for $189.06 for the month of April, 1895.

The resignation of William T. Cox as director of the Selma Irrigation district No. 4 was accepted and the appointment declared vacant.

The application of Carrie J. Weaver for appointment as a member of the County Board of Education was granted by a vote of three members of the board, and J. J. Walter was unanimously given a similar place.

The indigents who read the decision of the board to grant no further outside relief except on the testimony of witnesses and personal application, have already begun to give the best evidence of the justice of the measure in a number of cases. Three deserving applicants were relieved yesterday. Mr. Garrett has received a number of angry callers.

On motion of Garrett, seconded by Sayre, it was unanimously agreed to revoke the order reducing the salary of the county health officer, and the same was fixed at $50 a month from date.

Disturbing Neighbors.

James Thompson and his wife Elizabeth, and John Megge, were yesterday arrested for disturbing the peace. The complainant is V. M. Cox, who is a neighbor of Thompson and wife near the C street school house. Cox alleges that the trio are drunk all the time and raise a great disturbance. They discharge guns and pistols in their drunken revels, and make life miserable for the neighbors. Thompson was arrested some time ago for cruelty to animals.

J. W. Crow, J. D. Banes, Ed Belleville, and their respective families leave for Pine Ridge tomorrow to spend the summer.

HARVEST HANDS.

Farmers Say There is No Scarcity of Laborers.

A number of farmers were seen yesterday in regard to the reports being circulated to the effect farm laborers are scarce and that they cannot be had for less than $2 a day during harvest. Every farmer spoken to on the subject said that there is not a scarcity of laborers, but that some of them demand $2 a day. However, nearly all grain ranchers, particularly the larger ones, have their crews engaged, and the wages are from $1.25 to $1.50 a day and board.

The farmers say the price of grain is so low that it is impossible to pay $2 a day for men. Should they demand it and stand out for $2, it would simply result in delaying harvest, till the men who work cheaper can do the whole work. There is a willingness on the part of the ranchers to pay all they can afford to, but they say they cannot go beyond the limit of $1.25 to $1.50 a day.

PROSPEROUS CLOVIS.

PROPOSED NEW ROAD TO PINE RIDGE.

It Will Follow the Flume—Improvements in the Town and Community.

By the untiring efforts of a few interested workers a free right of way has been secured along the flume, sixty feet wide, for a new county road. Thus Clovis will be the terminus of the most practicable route to the mountains. The road will no doubt be graded sometime in the near future. It is understood that the Board of Supervisors has agreed to grade and keep the road in good order, and also to sprinkle the road in summer, using the water from the flume. The flume company has agreed to supply the water at all points along the flume. This would make the drive to the mountains a pleasant one. There would be little dust to contend with. This would be a great advantage over the present hot and dusty road.

The regular annual election of school trustees will be held next Friday at the Mountain View hotel. All qualified voters should take interest in the election, and place men on the board who will work for the welfare of our new school.

Mrs. Coddington and little daughter, Cornelia left for Los Angeles last Monday, where they will spend the summer months visiting friends.

Jessie T. Walden of Fresno, who is connected with the Farmers' Warehouse Company, was out to Clovis this week assisting George Owen in opening the new warehouse here.

Mr. and Mrs. Pleotz of La Vina, Madera county, paid a visit to the family of B. K. Smith Sunday. Mr. Pleotz expects to buy property in Clovis.

The friends of Miss Minta Owen of this place are highly elated over her success in the contest for Goddess of Liberty for the Fourth of July celebration in Fresno. Miss Owen will no doubt make the contest a winning one for Clovis.

Miss Hattie Mead of Polleasky is visiting the family of Amos Zanuy the past week.

Mr. Harry is making preparation for the erection of a large barn, to be used as a livery and feed stable.

A musicale was given by Miss Minta Owen and George Owen last Tuesday evening, at the home of their parents, to a small party of friends. Clovis has a number of talented musicians, and the entertainments of this community should be many.

The stock company has about completed arrangements to build the new hall. Clovis people must stand together for their own interests and prosperity, and the present time is none too soon to start in.

Dyspepsia.

E. W. JOY COMPANY—Gentlemen: I have taken your Vegetable Sarsaparilla and can say I have never seen anything equal to it. I have suffered ten years with dyspepsia, not being able to eat anything but milk and brown bread. Life was nothing but misery for me.

Now I have a good appetite, eat anything I wish and feel no disagreeable effects from it. I wish I could tell all dyspeptics and urge them to try your Vegetable Sarsaparilla.

THE TROUBLE SETTLED

PEACE REIGNS IN THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Dr. DeWitt's Resignation Accepted After a Vote by Ballot.

The matters at issue between Rev. H. G. DeWitt and a certain portion of the membership of the First Baptist church were practically settled last night by the acceptance of the pastor's resignation after secret ballot. The vote stood 52 to 6 for acceptance.

The meeting, while not strictly harmonious on critical points, was marked by an avoidance of personalities, and by general self control. Dr. DeWitt acted as moderator, with Brother Upton as clerk. A large number of ladies were present and voted.

Prior to taking action on the question of Dr. DeWitt's resignation the meeting listened with courteous interest to the pastor's introductory remarks on the relations of pastor and congregation in the matter of engagement and resignations. Dr. DeWitt deprecated any display of unbrotherly feeling or personality in the business of the evening, and exhorted all present to preserve peace and harmony in their councils. With a final declaration that his resignation was a firm resolve, the pastor sat down and the meeting addressed itself to considering how best to settle the financial difficulties connected with the acceptance of the resignation.

It had been represented that the church owed Dr. DeWitt nearly $2000, and that his resignation to take effect in October was made conditional on the payment of this sum by that date. By way of bringing the matter before the meeting William Harvey moved that Dr. DeWitt's resignation be accepted, and that he be presented with $1000 as a mark of appreciation.

Dr. Esbelman thought this looked like giving Dr. DeWitt a slap in the face and $1000.

There was considerable discussion on the point, and finally it was suggested that a secret ballot be taken.

Dr. Maupin was opposed to such a proceeding, or to a vote being taken on the matter at all. The resignation had been filed in good faith.

Judge Sayle thought that if Dr. DeWitt would file his resignation with the clerk now, that would be binding itself and would save much trouble.

Dr. Esbelman pointed out that a vote not to accept the resignation was a vote of respect to the pastor, while a vote for its acceptance was a vote to get rid of him as soon as possible.

Dr. DeWitt put the question of ballot or no ballot to the meeting, and the majority favored a ballot. Messrs. Lawson and Jones were appointed tellers. It was agreed that the vote should be taken on the acceptance of the resignation only, being the first part of Harvey's motion.

The ballots were duly collected and then came a nice point, whether the votes should be called or only the final result announced. It was evident that the moderator and tellers favored the latter proposition, but William Harvey stoutly insisted that the votes should be called.

Brother Upton said there were newspaper men present, and Dr. DeWitt said there was no parliamentary usage compelling the calling of the vote. Some people, he said, were seeking newspaper notoriety.

Mr. Harvey persisted in his demand and Mr. Ruffner arose to say he wanted the votes called. If there were to be any star-chamber proceedings he would walk out.

The matter was put to a vote and a majority declared in favor of calling the votes. This was done and it appeared that there were 52 in favor of accepting the resignation and 6 opposed. The ballots were supposed to be marked simply yes and no, but this rule was widely construed. One ballot marked "excepted" was thrown out. It was conjectured that the voter wished the resignation to be accepted. Where the latter word was correctly spelled the ballot was counted as "yes."

Mr. Harvey then moved that a committee of three, consisting of Dr. Maupin, Judge Sayle and Dr. Esbelman, prepare suitable resolutions of appreciation of Dr. DeWitt's services for presentation at the next monthly meeting. This was carried unanimously.

After some discussion a motion by Brother Harvey prevailed that the trustees of the church and the Ladies' Aid Society form a committee to raise a suitable purse for Dr. DeWitt, as a present, leaving entirely out of consideration the indebtedness of the church to the pastor. Harvey said he hoped that the amount raised would be at least $1000 and if $1500 could be raised so much the better.

After discussing some minor financial matters the meeting adjourned.

A Sufferer Cured

"Every season, from the time I was two years old, I suffered dreadfully from erysipelas, which kept growing worse until my hands were almost useless. The bones softened so that they would bend, and several of my fingers are now crooked from this cause. On my hand I carry large scars, which, but for AYER'S Sarsaparilla, would be sores, provided I was alive and able to carry anything. Eight bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me, so that I have had no return of the disease for more than twenty years. The first bottle seemed to reach the spot and a persistent use of it has perfected the cure."—O. C. DAVIS, Wautoma, Wis.

EARLY RISERS NOW

Judge Risley's New Hours for Court.

GEN. KITTRELL'S OBJECTIONS

Slow Progress in the Jordan Trial—Repetition of the Preceding Day.

General Kittrell is an indefatigable worker, but he says he is unable to keep up with Judge Risley. The matter came up yesterday in court, during the trial of the Jordan case. The progress made was slow, and the Judge announced that it must be made faster, and in order to do so he would call court at 8 a.m., close at 6 p.m., and then hold night sessions until the trial was finished.

General Kittrell said it was out of the question for him to put in so many hours, and he could not be in court at 8 o'clock. Judge Risley insisted on that hour.

"I give notice," said the General, "that I cannot be here at 8 o'clock. I mention it so that I may not be fined for contempt because of my absence."

"You will not be fined for contempt," replied Judge Risley, "but if you are not here an attorney will be appointed in your place, and the trial will proceed. This trial is dragging. I was told that it could be finished in four days. The time is nearly out, and hardly a beginning has been made. Court will open at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning."

The entire day was spent in hearing testimony which was a repetition, with here and there a slight variation, of the testimony of the day before. The details of the shooting were entered into again and again, but nothing new was brought out. Particulars which to an outsider seemed of little or no importance were inquired into at great length, and thus the day was consumed, and it was on account of this slow progress that Judge Risley ordered longer hours.

Dr. E. E. Brown was called by both the prosecution and defense. The latter sought to prove by him that a man who had been shot as Balthrop had been, would not be able to draw a pistol or to form any resolve to do so. But Dr. Brown replied to the questions by saying that he had not experience enough nor knowledge sufficient to answer the question. He did not know whether such a wound would or would not incapacitate a man for drawing a pistol.

The object of the testimony sought to be elicited was to show that Balthrop must have had his pistol out before he was shot, since he could not have drawn it afterwards. But Dr. Brown said he could not give the desired information.

The witnesses on the stand during the day were D. S. Snodgrass, Lee Arrants, Jacob Thrush, Dr. Williams, J. M. Burns and Dr. E. E. Brown.

Judge Risley ordered the jury placed in charge of an officer.

Hall, William Ford, T. A. Hoover and John McMullin.

C. G. Elliott resigned as treasurer, and Thomas Pickford as director. T. A. Hoover was elected in place of Pickford to represent the A. O. U. W. R. L. Peeler sent in his resignation as one of the directors for Fresno lodge, No. 188, I.O.O.F., and William Ford was elected in his place.

The company has put in 500 feet additional four-inch water main, and in many ways improved the plant. They are prepared to furnish all the water needed at present at the cemetery. T. J. Kelley, the new superintendent, has spent several years in the nursery business and understands caring for shrubbery. There are some people who take water, hose, vases, and anything they choose and appriate them without so much as asking the privilege, or returning them. The company has had the superintendent appointed a deputy constable, with instructions to arrest any one found using water without first seeing the superintendent any paying for it, or arranging for such payment. The water company has expended several thousand dollars in tanks, mills, engines, pipes, etc., and every one should be willing to assist in trying to improve the appearance of the cemetery. This is not a money making affair. Every dollar received is spent in extending the pipes to every part of the cemetery. Arrangements are being made now for pumping the water to the Foresters' plat, which will place water in reach of the Central California Lodge of I.O.O. F. grounds, the Herman Sons and the K. of P. grounds.

THREE NEW YORK LANDMARKS.

Trinity, St. Paul's and Grace Church Defy the Advance of Business Interests.

Three landmarks on Broadway occupy sites so valuable that their retention confounds every calculation of real estate speculators. They are the only three churches on Broadway below Forty-second street, and each has come to be part of the popular distinction of that thoroughfare. They are Trinity, St. Paul's and Grace. All three have high claims to architectural eminence, and all three are of one denomination—the Protestant Episcopal.

The site of Trinity church, on Broadway at the head of Wall street, is appraised officially at $1,000,000; that of St. Paul's church, at Broadway and Fulton street, at $1,750,000, and that of Grace church, Broadway opposite Eleventh street, at $350,000. The frontage of Trinity church, including the churchyard, is 306 feet, of St. Paul's church 167 feet and of Grace church 150 feet. The gross valuation of these three churches is $6,100,000, and as the usual rate of assessment on real estate is about 60 per cent the actual market value of these three Broadway plots is in excess of $10,000,000. In European cities it is no strange thing for public thoroughfares to be dotted with venerable edifices erected for ecclesiastical, military or governmental purposes, but in New York, where there is no material partnership between church and state, and where, perhaps, more utilitarian views prevail than abroad, the steady enhancement of real estate values has been such that few religious corporations have been strong enough or felt themselves strong enough to withstand the temptation to sell. On the present site of Tiffany's, for instance, Broadway and Fifteenth street, formerly a church stood. There was a chapel opposite the site of the old New York hotel. But with the advance of business interests the congregations reluctantly moved away. These three landmarks named have stood their ground, and it seems probable that they will continue to do so.

St. Paul's church is the oldest religious edifice in this city. It was built in 1764, and it was the church which George Washington and his associates attended immediately following the inauguration ceremonies in 1789. Trinity church is the third of that name on the present site, and was erected in 1846. Grace church was erected in 1845, one year before Trinity, and the site, at the head of Broadway where it turns an angle at Tenth street, was carefully chosen. All three buildings enjoy the advantage of being kept in excellent repair, and are improved from time to time by the liberal contributions of benefactors. This is especially true of Trinity and Grace church, which may almost be said to improve year by year. It is a peculiarity of these three landmarks of New York that those who attend them come, in nearly every case, from sections of the city far up town, so that they are, if such an expression may be used, the three churches to be reached by carriage. Very few persons who attend either Trinity or St. Paul's reside in their vicinity, and the number of such parishioners decreases each year. Grace church retains its high rank architecturally, notwithstanding the number of new church buildings in New York, and it has the additional distinction of being popular for fashionable weddings.—New York Sun.

SURPRISED THE OLD MAN.

Richard Thought He Owed the Bank $1, but It Owed Him $343.25.

Richard Roe deposited $705 in the Bowery Savings bank between 1835 and 1840. Between 1835 and 1855 $753.89 was withdrawn. When the last draft was made the depositor's book appeared to be overdrawn $1. There were due Roe at that time, however, dividends amounting to $100.01, which had not been entered in his passbook, and the bank really owed him a balance of $99.01.

The balance went on accumulating dividends until 1875, when it became a dormant account and ceased to draw interest. The amount then due Roe was $343.25. Efforts were made without success to find him. He had become very poor, was too old and feeble to go to work again, and was given a home by his sons at Rutherford, N. J.

Roe always intended to repay the $1 he thought he owed, but never did so. President Townsend of the Bowery Savings bank, in looking over the books the other day, came across Roe's account. A new search was instituted, and Roe was found at Rutherford. He was told to call at the bank with his old account books. Shortly afterward he did so, accompanied by his granddaughter, 17 years old.

"I suppose it's about the dollar I owe your bank that you want to see me," said the old man, addressing Mr. Townsend. He was astonished when told the facts.

"Guess those bank people know what's right," he said to his granddaughter. "I never was much on 'rithmetic."

He pocketed the $343.25, shook hands with the bank officials and returned home.—New York World.

Cutting Remarks.

Mrs. Bugsby—You can't deceive me, John! I'm sharp, you know—sharp as a knife!

Mr. Bugsby—Yes, Maria, you resemble a knife—a table knife—you never shut up.—New York Ledger.

"Fiasco" means a bottle or flask. When the Italian glassblowers detected flaws in the vase they were blowing they made an ordinary bottle of the failure, and hence the name.

Baluchistan was thus called because the Beloochees were the dominant tribe in its river valleys and plains.

Candles were first used symbolically on the altars of churches in the fourth century.

The New Man.

"Look," twittered the new man, "is not this just a lovely waistcoat? I made it myself out of one of her old sleeves. Ain't I saving?"

And the other new man gazed at the garment in voluble admiration.—Indianapolis Journal.

Elevator Wit.

The elevator boy in the big flat was airing his views to a passenger on the proper conduct of children.

"What do you know about it?" laughed the passenger. "You're not married, are you?"

"Well, no," replied the boy, "but I've brought up a good many families in my time," and then he gazed up the elevator shaft with a rapturous expression.—Detroit Free Press.

Tennyson.

Tennyson would not talk about his poetry, but once intimated that he regarded the "Ode on the Death of the Duke of Wellington" as containing more inspiration than some of the others. He once said that he did not expect much of the "Charge of the Light Brigade" and was agreeably surprised at its reception.

PRAIRIE SCHOONERS.

EMIGRANT TRAIN ARRIVES FROM NEBRASKA.

Hardy Farmers Seeking Homes in Kings County—Days of '49 Recalled.

Yesterday afternoon seven prairie schooners, regular old Forty Niners, came into Fresno from the north and halted on I and Tulare streets, while the emigrants scattered about town or sat on the wagon hubs and talked. The caravan naturally attracted much attention, and many were the question asked of the strangers as to where they had come from and where going. They told the story of their long wanderings in search of a promised land where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest.

They were from Nebraska, hale, hearty farmers and their families. Three rainless years in that state had stripped them of many of their earthly possessions, but of none of their energy. They packed their household goods and chattels in wagons, harnessed their farm mules and horses, and late last summer they took the road in search of a country where the industry of man finds a surer reward than it has found of late in Nebraska.

They headed for Idaho and reached that place last fall, not knowing but that they would settle there, but before the winter was over they had made up their minds that Idaho was not what they wanted. Reports of the wonderful fertility of the San Joaquin valley had reached, and they concluded to turn their backs upon Idaho and seek the better land.

The journey was a long one, through Washington, Oregon, and down through the whole length of California to Kings county, which they intended to be their stopping place.

They were nearly at their journey's end when they came into Fresno; but, aside from the natural wear and tear of the journey, they did not seem the worse off for the long trip. Every wagon was full of children of all ages and sizes, from the small urchin who has already forgotten Nebraska to the youths who never will forget the land of the giant grasshoppers. Household cats and dogs came also. The latter had sufficient energy to whip every Fresno cur within two blocks of the line of march through the city. Such a series of dog fights never took place here before. The first thing heard when they entered the northern suburbs was dog fights. The last murmur on the southern horizon as the caravan disappeared was the vanishing echoes of dog fights.

For the last several days the emigrants have averaged thirty miles a day. Some of their horses and mules have not been shod for months, but their hoofs were hard and tough. The caravan went into camp last night a few miles south of Fresno.

HARRY DEWITT'S HEN.

A Thief's Experience in Trying to Steal the Bird.

Harry DeWitt, the 17-year-old son of Dr. H. G. DeWitt, has a hen which nearly caused the ending of a thief's career yesterday morning about 2 o'clock. Of late the hen has been wanting to set. In order to prevent this, the young man tied her with a long, stout rope to one of the gum trees which adorn the Doctor's front yard on North K street. The hen then had the lawn to herself.

Yesterday morning about 2 o'clock the northern part of the city was awakened by the reports of two pistol shots. They had been fired by Special Officer Walter Hobbs at the vanishing form of a chicken thief over Dr. DeWitt's back fence.

A number of chickens roosted in the tree to which Harry had tied his hen, and she also was roosting with them. The thief climb the tree and filled his sack with fowls, taking along the one with the rope attached to her feet. He did not notice the rope and made for the alley to escape. Just as he passed the house the rope tightened with a jerk. The thief was traveling rather briskly and the angry hen gave desperate squawks when the rope tightened. The thief dropped the sack and, chickenless, he made for the back fence, in time to be shot at by Special Hobbs, who was walking along K street at the time. Both shots missed.

A FAREWELL PARTY.

Perhaps Premature but the Merry-makers Looked Wise.

On the evening of the 25th of May a farewell party was given at the residence of Mrs. J. Peckham in honor of Miss Dollie Banta. The ladies of the Relief Corps had the matter in charge. Miss Banta being a prominent and active member of that popular society, naturally suspected nothing till "of a sudden," through the instrumentality of a speech, she was presented with a beautiful engraved silver cake basket.

Miss Banta was too utterly innocent to respond, and the company stood in expectancy, but still maintained composure enough to look wise. The sequel was disclosed yesterday morning when Miss Banta appeared as a bride and was married to Charles Ayers of San Francisco. The happy couple left for San Francisco on the early train, where they will make their future home.

The following friends of Miss Banta were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. Peckham, Mr. and Mrs. S. Lines, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. George Lawson, Mrs. Nutt, Mrs. Stryker, Mrs. Anna B. Jackson, Mrs. Anna Rogers, Mrs. Ada Banta, Mrs. M. Shafer, Mrs. Laura Hoppock, Mrs. Platt, Mrs. Lelia Reynolds, Mrs. Bishop, Auntie Harris, Mrs Statham, Misses Julia Beatty, Cora Plato, Anna Peckham.

THE M'INTOSH LETTER.

A Juryman Has a Word to Say About Its Contents.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—In the weekly issue of the REPUBLICAN of May 31st appears a letter from Mr. McIntosh, relating to the Sanders trial, which he sanctifies by a quotation of scripture at the head. In the course of his letter he makes use of this language: "The jury could not distinguish the difference between real evidence and bare suspicion." This language seems rather peculiar. Why should Mr. McIntosh thus exhibit a spirit of malice toward that jury? Will he rise and explain? Leaving myself out, I really thought that the other eleven were men of fair intelligence as well as men of good moral character.

He also states that one of the jurymen should have said, "Oh, the most of us had our minds made up before the trial commenced." Possibly this may be true, but without specifying who said it, the whole twelve are slurred a second time. I wish to disclaim ever having used any such language or having heard any other juryman use it. So far as I know, there was no such interchange of thought as the language attributed to the jurymen would indicate.
